
▶ Warren Cotterill

28 Thurecht Parade,
Scarborough,
Queensland.
Australia

Phone: +61 417 956 069

E-mail: wcotterill777@gmail.com

Objectives

Community Development Advisor/Team Builder ~ Strategic Planning – Infrastructure Development OHSE Management ~ Policy/ Procedure Development/Management

Mentor, change management agent and partner to business with over 25 years in Offshore Oil and Gas, Mining and Construction industries, 25 years in Agriculture. Acknowledged and respected for employing clear innovative ideals, standards and integrity to the mix of leadership and decision making; consistently winning the support of others through honesty, trust and persuasive communications.

A strong advocate for a holistic and participatory approach to community and business development; a demonstrated commitment to social empowerment and an in-depth understanding of the issues surrounding community in crises at a national and international level. Exceptional interpersonal and communication skills, at ease working in a range of diverse situations while maintaining a high level of professionalism.

Seeking participation in Urban/ Rural community & Resource Development opportunities where experience in international infrastructure development projects and cultural mentoring combined with 25 years within the resource sector and 25 years within agriculture, land management and animal health and productivity, will be of value.

Key Attributes

Offering the following capabilities and strengths, developed through his academic and professional experience:

- People and teamwork skills are consolidated by integrity and ethics of the highest calibre.
- Ability to assist decision makers and develop effective working relationships.
- Excellent listening skills and enthusiasm with a pragmatic and professional service delivery.
- Skilled in developing strong relationships, developing trust and effectively mentoring indigenous and non-indigenous clients.
- Capable of quickly acquiring understanding of complex matters concerning community and behavioural dysfunction.
- Sound conflict resolution skills using tact, cultural sensitivity, fairness and firmness; achieving mutually satisfactory results.
- Deep understanding, knowledge and awareness of Australian and New Zealand culture and community
- Commitment to supporting clients in personal development opportunities, consolidated by a passionate, personal dedication and diversity of professional and personal experience.

Experience

Texas Holding Inc.

An Extraordinary Opportunity.

Developing in the field of commerce with skills attained through the education and mentoring of Bright Star Work Centre.

- Affiliated to Bright Star Work Center since 2009
- Full time student in THI protocols and Commerce through Capitalism.
- Participated and have experience in ICC Protocols.
- First responder to My Fuel/Grocery Club.
- Spurt account holder.
- Mentor/Educator in Commerce and Team development.
- Actively seeking new business opportunities to improve people's lives.
- Seeking opportunities to improve the financial health of national and international communities.

Construction, Mining and Oil Gas Experience

A strong history of development and advancement in the resource sector, with skills expressly sought for specific projects.

- Skilled in all aspects of Construction Management of Multimillion Dollar projects.
- Planning, delegation and execution of projects; Strong Leader and Trainer/Mentor.
- Excellent safety management performance. Critical Safety Audits – Behavioural Observations in accordance with OHS/Company procedures.
- Consistent development of environmental procedures specific to project.
- Understanding and awareness of employee cultural and isolated project community, in particular indigenous employee's in the mining/oil and gas industries.
- Skilled in developing strong relationships, developing trust.
- Effectively mentoring employees and developing a team environment.
- Excellent problem solving ability – able to respond effectively to unpredictable and challenging situations.
- Motivated and enthusiastic with a strong work ethic and commitment to completing tasks efficiently and safely.
- Highly organised and results oriented, combined with a commitment to constant quality control/ quality assurance.

Agriculture.

A life time of commitment to farming and the farming community, land management and animal husbandry.

You can take the land from the man, but you can't take the land out of the man.
