1. SALE STRUCTURE & DELIVERY TERMS

SALE STRUCTURE & DELIVERY TERMS

Nature of Transaction:
Future sale and long-term supply agreement of petroleum derivatives under contract.

Underlying Supply Contract:
Petroleum derivatives contracted under the Fuel Purchase & Sale Agreement held between Petrok S.A. and D&N Boat Services Inc. (D&N Petróleos).

Dispatch & Delivery Locations:
Deliveries shall be dispatched according to future requirements established by ASADHI LLC from Petrok S.A. storage and terminal facilities in Guatemala, or in El Salvador through its operating subsidiary Petrok El Salvador, S.A. de C.V. (Acajutla terminal storage facilities).

Payment Effectiveness:
Payment shall be deemed effective only when the full amount has been irrevocably credited, settled, and available in PETROK's primary operating account at Banco Agromercantil de Guatemala (BAM) or its correspondent account at BAC Panamá. Deposits made to any other account shall not constitute payment until PETROK confirms funds are cleared and under its sole control.

Transfer Mechanism:
Funds shall be transferred via SWIFT or API instructions from the institution designated by ASADHI LLC, subject to full compliance with international banking regulations and the compliance requirements of PETROK's receiving banks (BAM and BAC Panamá, etc).

Product Delivery:
Product delivery shall occur only upon PETROK's written confirmation that funds are fully available and under its sole control. No delivery shall be made prior to such confirmation.
